RISING UP ANGRY ORG.

Rising Up Angry has put out a newspaper for a year and a half. People all over the city and all over the country have been digging the newspaper - the cartoons, community news, and the ideas. But there's still a lot of mystery about who we are, what we are and where we're going.

Rising Up Angry is a revolutionary organization made up of sisters and brothers from all over the city. Most of our people are from neighborhoods like Lincoln Park, Lakeview, Uptown, projects at Diversey and Damen, Armitage and Kedzie and the Southwest Side. None of us were born revolutionaries. We were into the same bullsit as everyone else - gang banging, racism and male-chauvinism. The system had us fooled into fighting each other - gang against gang, men against women, race against race. Like fools, we hated each other, while lousy jobs, the army, jail, school and pigs in the street were making our lives miserable. So, we made a decision about our lives. We decided that we were no longer going to let the system run our lives - our way of thinking, our life style - everything. Instead, we decided to create new values based on revolutionary principles. And we decided that our fate is with the masses of people and to the people, we dedicate our entire lives.

So we started by putting out a paper. We knew that most sisters and brothers had never had the opportunity to dig a real 'people's' newspaper with revolutionary ideas instead of just the lies printed in the Tribune and the Daily News. We felt that once they saw the new ideas, many would get hip to them and join the revolution. It's been over a year since that stage and our predictions were right.

The paper lays out what we believe. We explain about how the enemy is the government and the rich ruling class (the 3% of the population that runs it).That they discriminate against women and minority groups to keep their control. The paper explains the vanguard role of the Black Panther Party, our position on Vietnam and other issues. Basically, the job of our paper isto explain this fascist imperialist system and the struggle that is being fought against it.

Rising Up Angry does much more than put out a newspaper. We participate in rallies and demonstrations. We have educationals where brothers and sisters from different neighborhoods come together to rap, see films, and learn about making a revolution. And we have revolutionary programs that serve the people - legal aid, medical, jails and sisters program. (see back page).

But Rising Up Angry understands that revolution will not come just from rap groups and rallies. To make a revolution, we're going to have to fight the pigs. That's why we have articles on self-defense. And every member of Angry must learn to shoot. Because of this, the pigs fuck us over every chance they get. Many of our members face long jail sentences and there will be more in the future. The struggle is getting heavier, not lighter, so we have to be serious about what we're doing.

Making a revolution is also about building a new man and a new woman. The revolutionary person. Members of Angry are trying to live in a revolutionary way. We fight against any prejudices that we might have had and also against the old ways of dealing with stuff. - like tensions between sisters and brothers. In Angry, there is a rule against any guy beating a woman. We feel that beatings are an unrevolutionary way of dealing with tensions and only produce more passivity in women and resentment toward men. The sisters also demand that guys treat them as equals - instead of just as lays and servants. In turn, the Angry sisters are trying to fight the passivity within ourselves. To fight that feeling of being unsure of ourselves, of being afraid to stand up for what we think is right. And to do the heavy things that must be done. Because of this, sisters take self-defense seriously (karate, guns, etc.). And finally, in Rising Up Angry, we can always be sure that we back each other up.

But no matter how strong we make the organization, we are nothing without the people. We are weak unless we are among the people, growing strong with them, educating them and learning from them. Thus Rising Up Angry members are always busy whether it be selling papers in the streets, rapping in our old neighborhoods, or painting revolutionary slogans and pasting posters on walls. We also do work at the high schools and nearby Great Lakes Naval base. Some members are ex-gang members who are now going back to their old gangs and rapping about the revolution and how gang-banging keeps the people divided. Other members work at our office, which is at 2744 N. Lincoln Avenue, answering phones, working on the newspaper, making leaflets and so on. In addition, each member works on one of the programs to serve the people. And we do whatever we can to fuck the pigs up. We do whatever is necessary to make the revolution. We live for the people and we'll die for the people.

We know that everyone can't be in Rising Up Angry. We aren't down on people who aren't in Angry, for we understand that people will relate to the revolution on all different levels. To be in Angry doesn't mean that you're down on the people in your gang or the people that you grew up with. Anyone who wants to be a revolutionary and serve the people and follow the Rising Up Angry leadership, can be in our organization. We will soon be accepting new members and expanding our programs.

FREE RUCHELL MAGEE

ON AUGUST 7TH, 1970 IN THE MARIN COUNTY HALL OF JUSTICE IN SAN RAFAEL, CALIFORNIA, FOUR REVOLUTIONARY BLACK BROTHERS SET AN EXAMPLE FOR ALL REVOLUTIONARY SISTERS AND BROTHERS TO FOLLOW. JAMES McCLAIN (37), WILLIAM CHRISTMAS (27), RUCHELL MAGEE (31) AND JONATHON JACKSON (17) STOOD UP AGAINST THIS FACIST, RACIST SYSTEM AND SAID, "FREEDOM OR DEATH."

James McClain was on trial, charged with stabbing a guard at San Quentin prison where he was sent last year for shooting an Oakland pig. While Ruchell Magee was on the witness stand, Jonathan Jackson came into the courtroom armed to the teeth. Jonathan said "All right gentlemen. I'm taking over." With that he gave James McClain and Ruchell Magee guns. They rounded up the people in the courtroom and got William Christmas (who was another witness) out of lockup. Taking the pig judge, Harold Haley, hostage, the brothers left the courtroom for their van. As they were leaving they shouted "Free the Soledad Brothers by noon." (The Soledad Brothers are 3 brothers charged with killing a guard in Soledad prison) Presumably they intended to hold the judge as a hostage who would be released in exchange for the Soledad Brothers.

The pigs, not caring for the safety of their own kind, pig Haley, opened fire on the van, killing Jonathan Jackson, William Christmas, James McClain, and Pig Haley and wounding Ruchell Magee.

Today Magee is charged with killing the judge and is on trial with Angela Davis (who is accused of buying their guns). In reality, the judge was shot by one of the pigs who fired into the van. Magee's only crime is that he fought for his survival and freedom in this racist country and that's why he's been a victim of the fascist courts all his life.

Ruchell is 31 years old and comes from Louisiana He spent the last 15 years (except for 7 months) in jail. He was convicted in Los Angeles of armed robbery and kidnapping and was sentenced to life imprisonment without the possibility of parole. The kidnapping charges were brought up because during a robbery that Magee was accused of committing a person was moved from one room to another in the same house. The kidnapping charge was brought on this technicality because the pigs wanted to send Ruchell away for a long time. Ruchell claims he didn't do it; but even if he did, the kidnapping law he was sentenced under has been declared unconstitutional. So since 1965 Ruchell Magee has been trying every legal means possible to get out of jail. After exhausting all legal means, Ruchell took the only step open for a slave to get his freedom--now he's facing a mandatory death sentence.

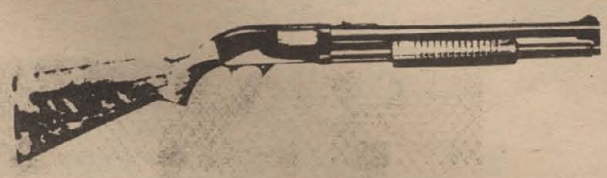
Since the kidnapping in San Rafael, Brother Ruchell has been subjected to "lynching proceedings" in San Quentin prison. So-called "public" hearings have all taken place within the prison. All the spectators are searched, stamped with ultra violet ink, and are escorted by armed guards to and from the courtroom. At the last hearing in San Quentin Ruchell was bound and gagged while a hearing to determine his ability to defend himself was going on. Now how are you going to present evidence to defend yourself it you're bound and gagged? Whenever black revolutionaries like Ruchell Magee, Bobby Seale and Ericka Huggins demand their constitutional right to defend themselves, the pig judges are so scared they silence them. (Freedom? Justice? More like fascism---like Nazi Germany.)

Naturally the judge pig Winslow Christian denied Ruchell the right to defend himself. So the judge appointed a right wing attorney A. Leonard Bjorklund to defend him. To show how much Bjorklund wants to help the case, the state has had him try to bribe Magee to get him to trick on Angela Davis even though Ruchell says he has evidence that will free Angela.

Even though Ruchell is facing a mandatory death sentence, he would not trick on Angela. As a matter of fact in court he accused his attorney of trying to bribe him. In a sworn affadavit Ruchell said that he was offered parole and immunity from prosecution if he would lie and say that Angela gave him the guns on August 7. He also swore that his attorney "threatened (his) life with the gas chamber" if he didn't lie Magee added, as any revolutionary would, that he "refused to enter into such conspiracy and stated tha he was not going to frame Miss Davis for nobody and further he ran Bjorklund out of the room."

On January 5 Magee was brought into Judge Wilson's court with Angela Davis. He demanded that he be allowed to defend himself. For this he was bound and gagged again.

It's clear that Brother Magee is being railroaded and that the pigs of the power structure are trying to legally lynch him (just as they are with Bobby Seale).



The way Ruchell and all black revolutionaries are being treated in the "halls of justice" is only the most blatant example of fascism. No constitutional rights; no adequate defense; legal murder by the state But we all know that there is no justice in America--not in any court from North Side Boys Court at 937 N. Wood to San Rafael Hall of Justice to the U.S. Supreme Court. The rich win and the poor lose. We all know it because we see it every day. Ruchell saw it and did something about it. That's what's so heavy.

Most people know how unfair the courts are--- "where do you work?", "do you go to church?" "why don't you get a good lawyer?" But don't know what to do about it, don't know how to demand their human rights (and their constitutional rights). So every day righteous brothers and sisters are sent off to concentration camps called jails, not to be rehabilitated but to be brutalized, tortured and dehumanized. And the pigs constantly hold the threat of "life imprisonment" or "death" over us to keep us from acting, to keep us from fighting for our people's freedom.

It's only when we break through this fear, when we move beyond the man's game, can we seriously think about building a system based on need and a society where justice is a reality. Jonathan Jackson Ruchell Magee, James McClain and William Christmas had the vision of the new world when they kidnapped that judge. They had the courage and heart to do what so many of us dream about. We've got to pick up on that example.

That's why we want Ruchell free. It's not a question of whether or not he's innocent or guilty. He's guilty of being a revolutionary, of caring for his people's freedom more than his personal safety, of chancing his life so we can learn what needs to be done to defeat the fascists. Jonathan, James, and William made the ultimate sacrifice for us---their lives. Now the pigs want Ruchell's life, too. But we need him here to teach us---because he's showed that he loves us. We've got to show that we need and love him.

Political power grows out of the barrel of a gun. And when the pigs of the power structure can no longer get the brothers and sisters in the armed forces to point their guns at the people and in the direction the pigs want, the pigs are that much weaker and we are that much closer to winning our revolution. That's what's beginning to happen now.

In 1967, 27,000 men deserted the army. In 1968, 39,234 right on brothers deserted and in 1969, 56,608 deserted. In 1967, 6,654 men deserted the Marines, while in 1970, 16,000 brothers deserted. A lot of brothers just don't report for induction in the first place. One day, recently in Chicago, 343 men were called and 203 of them just didn't show up.

'OK! OK! Your lousy morale has made the general cry and I hope you're proud of yourselves."

Some of the brothers don't split—they stick around and toss fragmentation grenades at their officers. This right on action is called "fragging."

GI'S TELL NO LIES

LANE

to love we must fight

A couple of weeks ago, 5 sisters and 10 brothers from Angry went down to Lenny's, the snack shop across from Lane Tech. High School. We all walked in, passing out copies of the paper to the brothers there. At first, some of the brothers were digging on the paper, then some racists started passing out White Power signs with swastikas on them. Then a couple reactionary turds jumped on one of the Angry people—and the place went up for grabs. People were yelling and argueing; there were a few humbugs and lots of people were trying to figure out what was happening. When it was over, no one from Angry was hurt even though the odds were 15 to about 150.

In order to understand the fight at Lane, you've got to check out the history of the situation. A few months ago, there was a lot of racial tension between blacks and whites there, so some of the brothers asked Angry to come up and rap to the brothers at Lenny's, where some of the guys who had been involved in the racial tensions hung out. When we went up there, the guys had lots of questions about racism, facism, capitalism, and communism. A lot of the brothers were digging on the rap and learning from it. But some of them were stone racist and didn't like the paper and had no intention of listening to the raps. They just started saying "you're communists!" and "you nigger-lovers, my old man's a cop," and then ended it all by throwing their papers down on the floor. Not being satisfied, these assholes started pushing some of the other brothers around in Lenny's and telling them not to read the paper. Then they started bad-mouthing the people from Angry and telling them to leave and never come back. Ignoring these ignorant jackanapes, the Angry brothers and sisters continued rapping and said they'd be back with the next issue.

So 3 or 4 weeks later, 2 brothers and a sister went back up to Lenny's with the new issue of Angry. They started passing out papers and a couple of the chumps who had done the bad-mouthing the time before came up to the 2 brothers and said "I thought we told you not to come back here again." Not wanting to start any bullshit, the people from Angry ignored these assholes and continued passing out the papers and rapping to the brothers who were interested. So these chumps jumped the 2 brothers from Angry. Since the odds were 100 to 3, there wasn't much of a fight and the brothers and sister left. So 3 days later, we all went back up there to try to educate the brothers at Lane and to let the right wing jagoffs know that it is impossible to intimidate a revolutionary brother or sister from RUA.

Now this whole situation is really a drag. There's nothing that revolutionaries hate more than fighting the people. But our slogan is "To love, we must fight" and there is a time to fight. If there are some racist chumps, who try to take out their frustrations on Black people we will try to educate them as to how racism divides us and helps the pigs. But if they can't relate to that and don't dig us because "you ain't white" and we believe in "All power to the people," and we can't relate to the Nazis. Then those few reactionaries are our enemies and we will fight them. Right on.

We also believe in self-defense. When the odds are 100 to 3 and these racist chumps jump our people, we have to defend ourselves. So we went back knowing the odds would be against us, 150 to 15. But we were not intimidated and we didn't take any ass-kicking either. We'll be going back again, too,—not to fight, but to rap. But we're always ready to defend ourselves from pigs and from people who do the pigs work.

Now we don't think that all of those 150 brothers from Lenny's will be our enemies down the line(and we understand that 5,000 guys go to Lane and some of them were fighting with us). We think that there was a lot of confusion involved and some of the brothers saw it as a humbug between "us" and "them" without understanding what the issues were. It's obvious that there is a small group of right wing Nazi-type, racist idiots in Lenny's whose fathers and brothers are pigs and they want to become pigs too. But most of the brothers in there aren't Nazis, they're just confused, that's obvious from their questions. Most of the cats in Lenny's hate pigs and should be embarrassed fighting to defend pigs. White power, Nazi slogans, pig-defenders - these are things of the past, only reactionary grease relate to that. We believe that most of these brothers who said they were against Angry, don't believe in this bullshit. But when they hear about the revolution, about Blacks demanding their rights, about women demanding their rights, they feel up against the wall. Their whole way of viewing the world, their own little position is shattered and it takes time and struggle to get through that bullshit. So some people just lash out in a reactionary way, like many of the brothers at Lane did. There are lots of reasons for this and we should check them out.

These brothers at Lane are a little better off than average people. They go to a technical school to learn a trade and have the idea that some day they're going to be rich. They are privileged greasers-with stable jobs and a faith in the system. They are the kind of people the American Nazis and other right wing groups TRY to relate to. Since they are a little better off, the pigs don't harass them as much and generally, they have many more people going to college and fewer going to jail. We're not saying they aren't fucked over, they are; but not as much as the average person say from the projects or Armitage & Kedzie. Some of them go to jail and are harassed by the pigs-generally, on petty things such as drinking, dope, hanging out on the corner and other such bullshit things.

Dig, in America, we have been brainwashed all our lives into accepting racism, fascism, and a system which is based on greed instead of need. "If you got money you can do no wrong." Going to school at Lane and hanging out a Lenny's reinforces this bullshit. Like the last time there was a race riot at Lane, the owner of Lenny's gave clubs to the white kids to beat the blacks with. There are also lots of racist teachers at Lane who also reinforce "white power" movements and teach white supremacist ideas in their classrooms. Another tactic used at Lane is showing stone reactionary, anti-communist films to brainwash the brothers; trying to make them think that anything against the pigs is against them. The brothers at Lane know the pigs who run the country are no good, even those guys that fought us. They'd like to think of America as the great country that helps everyone in the world out of trouble, but they know that's a lie. That's why they're so uptight.

SOME OF THEM ACT LIKE THE KID WHO FOUND OUT THAT HIS MOTHER OR FATHER IS A KILLER OR A THIEF. AT FIRST, THEY' LL SAY IT'S A LIE AND WILL FIGHT PEOPLE WHO SAY ANYTHING ABOUT IT EVEN THOUGH THEY KNOW IT'S TRUE. IT TAKES A WHILE FOR THEM TO ACCEPT IT AND TALK ABOUT IT AND THEN FINALLY DEAL WITH IT. WELL--A LOT OF PEOPLE AT LANE ARE STARTING TO DEAL WITH IT AND A LOT MORE OF THEM WILL BECOME REVOLUTIONARIES IN THE NEXT TWO YEARS.

"AMERICAN" PIGS--THE SAME PEOPLE WHO MISTAKENLY FOUGHT YOUR BATTLES FOR YOU YESTERDAY, TOMORROW WILL BURN YOUR SYSTEM DOWN. FULLERTON &PULASKI

It's colder than a bitch out, so we haven't been on the street a whole lot lately. But things have been getting tight none the less. The pigs seem to have it in for one brother in particular. He's constantly harrassed by the 14th district agents of USA fascism, for no reason at all. They are always running checks on him and just generally running amuck.

We hear that Don 'sweet lips' Helmig, co-owner of the local greasy spoon, known as the Gossage Grill; is uptight about having his name in Angry. Fuck you, you charge high prices for your stinkin food, ban certain people from your restaurant, have racist employment practices and have our people off the block busted on bullshit charges. Then you split with the profits, to your home in Villa Park. You think people around here like you? You chump motherfucker, you might be crawling back to Villa Park, one of these days.

PAULINA & BARRY COMMUNITY

There hasn't been much action around the neighborhood lately because of the cold weather. The brothers and sisters have remained indoors to escape the winter.

The pigs haven't been busting anyone because they're too chumpy to get out of their warm cars. An exception was one night a pig came to the corner asking for information on a brother. The people denied knowing the brother and told the pig to oink in some other pen. After the pig decided it was useless to stay around any longer, he left. A few brothers left and went to warn the other brother. We say, pigs you don't protect the people, the people protect each other!

Also the brothers and sisters of the PBC had a killer time at the RUA benefit. We met a lot of brothers and sisters from other hoods, and a few people that used to hang in our hood. too. The bands were out of sight and Taxi was dynamite!

ALCOTT GRAMMAR SCHOOL

Some of the teachers at Alcott School have been hasseling girls about the dress code -- which was abolished last year in all public schools. Even though teachers are supposed to deal with your education, some teachers seem to be more interested in the clothes you wear. They hassel girls, especially, since they feel girls will end up housewives anyway, and their education isn't as important as a guy's. One sister asked her teacher for help with math because she didn't understand the new problems. Her teacher came back with, "I'll help you with your math when you come to school dressed like a lady." (She was wearing a pants suit.)

Now listen teacher, you know damn well you're not supposed to interfere with the education of your students! Stop harassing them, and keeping them from their studies, or they may have to kick you out of school!

SOUTH SIDE

One of the brothers from the South side who has been in the Navy for the last 22 months was finally let out. When he got out he talked to a brother from Angry and told him he had been trying for 21 months to get out. The Navy gave him a general court martial for being a discipline problem. He said he really didn't fuck off a lot, he just acted natural. When lifer pigs gave him a lot of shit he'd tell them to get fucked. One time he went AWOL just for a few days and ended up in the brig with a $70 fine. He was caught with copies of Angry a couple of times which the lifer pigs didn't dig a whole lot. When he got out the pigs told him if he didn't get in trouble for 6 months he would get a general discharge which would turn into an honorable one after a certain amount of time. The brother said fuck it, now that I'm out I'm going to get into the revolution a lot heavier. Right on!

GENEVA STATE TRAINING SCHOOL FOR GIRLS

The purpose of this state run camp, is to bring in the sisters that don't jive with the system and 'rehabilitate' them so that they will be 'ladies' and conform.

The shit that our sisters get from the pigs at camps like these is enough for them to know that the pigs are the lowest creatures that walk the streets. While the sisters were taking a shower, a fat slimy pig named Jo-Jo grabbed a girl out of the shower. Another girl told him that he could get in trouble for it - so he better stop. For this, he grabbed her and pushed her and dragged her on the floor. Jo-Jo just got a 3 day suspension, while the sister received threats and constant harrassment for the rest of her stay!

In the jails, camps, high schools, on their jobs and in the streets, our sisters are constantly harrassed by sexist pigs who feel satisfaction from feeding their egos by putting sisters down and raping and beating them.

SOUTHWEST SIDE

For a long time the pigs of the Southwest side have been fucking the people over, and running things the way they want it. Things are beginning to change. Racist chumps like Huey Bolletto are slowly losing their hold on the neighborhoods, and they know it. Black, white and Latin brothers and sisters are more interested in Angry, and are getting it together in the schools and streets. The pigs are definitely scared, they're trying to come down quick and hard busting people organizing and selling papers, or using other fascist tricks like getting brothers and sisters from other gangs to vamp on these people. It is clear that no matter what the pigs do, the spirit of the Southwest side will never die!

ST. LAWRENCE HIGH SCHOOL

I go to St. Lawrence High School and I really hate it there. It's a drag. Every little thing you do, you get a detention. I was late for 3 of my classes, once, and got detentions. When I went for detention, after school, the dean called me up to his desk and asked me if I got my letter. I said, 'what letter?' He said the letter telling me I wouldn't be coming back next year. I said, 'why?' He said I was getting in too much trouble and that they were going to kick me out. So I said, 'I really like it here!' I was being real sarcastic and he really didn't like that. Especially in front of the whole class. I started to laugh and he said he would like to beat me and that he would get in touch with me. I ain't worried, he couldn't touch me with a ten foot pole!

MESSAGE FROM P.V.P.

Like any other high school, Taft is more like a concentration camp than a place where people get an education. The classes are shitty, but the main thing about Taft is the security. You have to have your I.D. card - even if the pig knows you, he won't let you in.

And the pigs! There's the dog assed Chicago pigs, like Shriner and Kennedy, but the one I want to rap about is rent-a-pig Harrison. He is so mangy that he can't even become a 'real' pig (if you can imagine any human existence as low as that). But his sadistic nature has driven him to become a rent-a-pig. Being 2nd best, he tries harder. He's trying by hassling people for smoking or for not having I.D.'s, for speeding in the parking lot and there's nothing he likes better than getting someone kicked out of school for being late from lunch. But there is one thing that mini-pig Harrison better get hip to - the chunk of ice he got hit with is just the beginning. Next time, people won't just be throwing ice, they'll be throwing rocks, bottles, and hand grenades. Rent-a-pig Harrison will never become a 'real' pig - he'll only become a barb-qued pig.

AMUNDSEN HIGH SCHOOL

When some brothers from Angry came up to Amundsen to distribute the paper and talk about the revolution the sisters and brothers were very happy. Some of the brothers took papers and distributed them in the halls and classrooms of the school. This is because they undee understand that the educational material in Angry is what people should be studying -- not that bullshit they try to run on us in class.

What came out of the raps with the sisters and brothers is that the biggest problem is the dope busts that are constantly coming down. Like a bunch of people will be sitting in the snack shop and all of a sudden these fascist pigs come charging through the door, like they fascist pigs come charging through the door, like the Lone Ranger and Roy Rogers all in one. Then they proceed to rip off someone for some phony ass possession charge.

These pigs are pushing the people too far. The end of the pigs oppression is near and the pigs around Amundsen will be no exception.

Pigs bust brother selling Angry in Uptown

I was selling Angries on Broadway near Wilson Ave when a squad pulled up with 2 pigs inside. One pig got out and said "Have you ever been arrested before?" I said, "Yeah, on disorderly." He said, "Well, you're arrested on disorderly again." And he pulled me in the squad car. When we got to the station (Summerdale) he made out an arrest sheet for disturbing the people who were walking in the street. Then some jagoff pig who was looking through the law book says to tear up the arrest sheet and charge me with 192-11, "sale of literature containing sex medicine." They said that the article in the last issue on VD was sex medicine. The asshole pigs said I was charged with the "clap rap". They all had a good laugh.

The dumbest of them was Paresi, the one who busted me. All he could say was "oink". It took him an hour to fill out a 3 sentence report because he couldn't figure out how to spell any of the words.

Brothers and sisters should look for me selling papers again at Wilson & B'way because I'm going back. Even Paresi's ugly face sitting right there won't stop me.

There will be raps on Women's Liberation, Self-Defense, and Revolutionary Theory. Literature will be offered for education and information.

All people are invited to attend and take part.

A Revolutionary New Idea! Fellow Brothers and Sisters of Armitage Ave. are beginning to dig the revolution. They are starting to get their minds together and understand the ways of the Fascist Pig government.

They are realizing that gangbanging is not the answer to the cries of the people! They are trying to spread this course of action throughout their entire neighborhood, which consists of the Satan Disciples, and Simon City, who are all getting hip to the revolution.

We will keep up the work until Armitage becomes a street of revolutionary progress.

PIGS HASSLE GYPSIES

Some sisters and brothers who were eating at a McDonald's, came across the harrassments that the people frequently get from Chicago pigs. They were listening to a jam on the radio, when these pigs told them to shut up and turn off the radio, or get out. They decided to forget it and turned it off. When they started talking in a different language than english, the pigs said if you can't speak english, don't talk.

Any language is better than pig talk - 'Oink-Oink'.

SENN

A sister from Senn High School called up the Angry Office to tell us that she really dug the article in the last issue of the paper about Senn.

The sister says that all the teachers are just pawns for the pig administration and that the students get hasselled from these pawns inside the school and outside near the school!!!

The principal is the court, jury and prosecutor all at the same time.

She asked if we would come out to Senn with every issue.

Right on sister! Angry will be there!

100 PIGS ATTACK WINSTON - SALEM NATIONAL COMMITTEE TO COMBAT FASCISM (NCCF)

On January 12, two brothers, Grady Fuller and Carry Coe, from the Winston-Salem, North Carolina NCCF, were unloading a truck of meat at their office. The office was surrounded by over 100 pigs wearing flack jackets carrying automatic weapons. After a 15 minute shootout the two brothers, one of them was only 15 years old, were arrested. The pigs proceeded to confiscate the machinery, burn the furniture and clothes, and damage the house.

This type of activity by the fascists isn't surprising. The pigs always deal with revolutionaries by trying to kill them or provoke them into a shootout and then cracking them. This won't stop us, it will make us stronger and more determined to serve the people and stop the pigs.

ALL POWER TO THE BROTHERS & SISTERS who

Dear Mr. Pig:

I am sorry about the fact that you wasted so much of your time on the 28th of January when you ripped me off the corner of Armitage and Kedzie, where you very stupidly tried to intimidate me.

I realize you would have rather used this time to fuck over the people in your very pretentious way. But as your money and power bent minds influenced you to fuck me over, I have regrets to say that you didn't succeed. Because for one, my work for Angry cannot and will not be discouraged by your constant intimidation of me and my people.

If you are so ignorant to believe that the power of the people will not prevail, then I must say that you are truly deservant of your name. PIG! Angry has started and cannot be destroyed. We love what we stand for, the People love what we stand for, and we know we are right. If you believe motherfuckers that you can destroy us then do it now, for the people will destroy you!

In my walk from your pig pen on California Ave. I also had the chance to spread my revolutionary thought along to two brothers who after rapping with me decided that revolution is the only solution.

So jagoffs, rip me off again and again and every time you do the people will get together more and more until they are thoroughly convinced and take total revolt as the answer.

All I can say for now is fuck you, fuck you, fuck you. The revolutionary struggle must go on. You pigs are chumps and your mamas are chumps.

CASTING ENGINEERS

Casting Engineers recently fired a black brother from his job. He tried to get Dr. Martin Luther King's birthday (January 15th) declared a day off for all the workers at Castings.

The basic proposal made to the company was that if a worker took the day off, he would receive an excused absence and loss of the day's pay. Also, any worker could come to work if he wanted to. Most workers thought it was pretty hip.

At the first meeting between the chief union steward, who is Black, and the company, the management freaked at the proposal. They said if we let workers have a day off the company will lose its contracts (Bullshit), that if black workers take off, white workers will have more work to do. (This is bullshit since most white workers supported the blacks.)

The eventual outcome was that on January 15th, 16% of the workers did other things besides coming to work. The following Monday, the company fired the chief union steward, because he was an instigator in chief union steward, because he was an "instigator in stopping production." This is a flagrant lie, the real reason was that he would not take any shit from the company and he fought for the workers at Casting Engineers.

The union says that it will get back the brother's job, but this is bullshit too. This union is just a tenticle of the company and one more way the capitalist has to supress and pacify the workers. A few workers passed around leaflets about the firing, but some workers are fraid for their jobs.

The management may have given a worker the ax this time, but the time is not far off when the workers will be giving management the ax!

MONTEFIORE

There are 3 main problems at Montefiore Social Adjustment school. The pigs (administration and uniformed), the rules and a few racist chumps (teachers and students, black and white).

There's a fascist, ignorant, funky pig there named Romao. Now, Romao is no ordinary pig - he's a youth pig and his ugly face is supposed to scare us. The only thing tough about this chump is his .38 pistol and if he ever drops it he's a weak oinking wimp.

The rules are made by the pigs, for the benefit of the pigs - so they can take their rule book and shove it down Romao's throat.

Teacher pig, Delano, an ex-boxer, doesn't hesitate to show his muscle. Another fascist is library teacher Delsidario. This chump is hiding behind 300 pounds of pigfat. This porker comes up with bullshit books like, "Negro Since Immancipation" to try and pacify us.

Racist students are an important issue, since the students have to get it together and off these fascist schools. One little minuteman in my room is always mouthing off about the revolutionaries, to the greasers in the room. He lives near the Nazi Party Headquarters and comes in spouting their shitty rhetoric. He's not much to fret about though, because he's a little chump and may even be converted from his racist ways once he gets hip to the revolution.

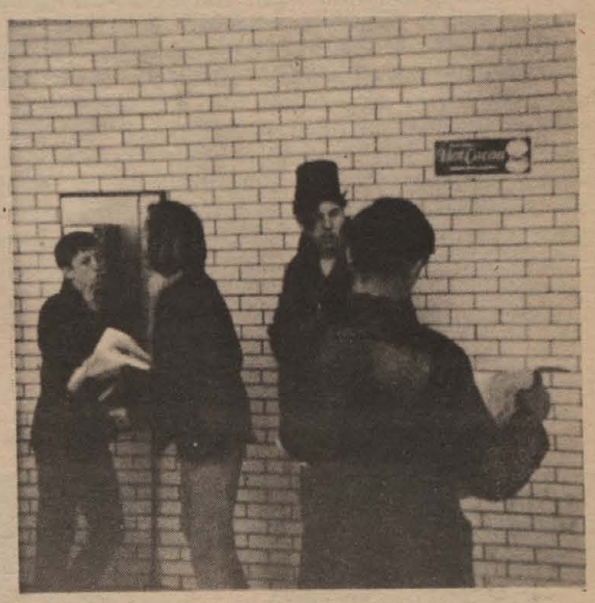
THE PIGS IN CAIRO ARE AT IT AGAIN

Continuing their attacks of the past few months, the Cairo pigs have since raided four apartments, seizing weapons, amunition and dynamite. They also beat four persons. One was a 23 year old pregnant woman who they charged with aggravated battery.

The apartments that were raided are located in the Pyramid Courts Projects. It was said that the safety of police in the Projects cannot be insured. Shit Jack, the motherfuckin' pigs raid, arrest, and beat the people at the Projects. For Damn sure the pigs will never be safe from the People's Justice!

LINCOLN & BELMONT

There was 2 of us up at Lincoln & Belmont selling Angries at the bank. Then this dude gave us a leaflet that said vote for me, Kargman. So I said we're for revolution and the dude said Kargman's for change too. So I said if you see him tell him to shoot his self. So out of nowhere this smily faced dude ran up and said I'm Kargman and stuck his hand out so I shook his hand and said "shoot yourself mother fucker", You should've seen the look on this dude's face.



ANGRY BROTHERS AND SISTER WIN CASE

Last Sept. 16th, R.U.A. had a film showing on the southwest side. The pigs heard about it and they figured that the people of the neighborhood would get out of hand if they saw this film. The people were educated in a different way though. The pigs exposed their true nature (disgusting) to the people anyway. Five members of R.U.A. were busted by the fascists. For one brother, the pigs tried to flush him out the back door of the church that the films were being shown at, by coming in the front door and announcing a warrant for him. The fascists had pigs at the back door lined up with shotguns. The brother was hip to this and hid in the church, but he got busted anyway. After that a sister and 3 brothers from Angry drove up and saw the pigs and kept going so as to figure out what happened. The pigs followed and busted us.

The fascist dogs started getting smart with the R. U. A. people and pushed a brother. A member of Rising Up Angry, dutybound to do the best he could to fuck up the pig, he kicked the pig's ass. Then a swine saw the other swine getting his ass beat and tried to help. But the sister saw the two pigs fighting her brother and grabbed one of the pigs and threw him. The pig didn't say shit from then on. The other pigs had their pieces out by this time and being unarmed, R. U. A. let go of the pigs.

Rising Up Angry has a legal program that defends the people in the courts of the fascist pigs. So at court last Wednesday, the Angry people and the lawyers went down to deal with the pigs.

The pigs, knowing that their own kind are never in the right, and because R. U. A. had dynamite lawyers, we got cut loose. When the pig judge read off the charges the courtroom full of people started laughing at the pigs. The pigs asked for restitution, money for their broken glasses, watches, ripped pants, split sweaters and the like. Then the room started laughing at the pigs and the pigs got all frustrated, knowing that they ran up against the people and the people just don't fuck around. So Angry says to Gresham and all other pigs, we'll dance on your graves motherfuckers!

DEATH TO THE MOTHERFUCKING PIGS!

GAGE PARK HIGH SCHOOL

Last week, a sister from Angry and me, were passing out papers to some brothers and sisters at a store across the street from Gage. As we walked down the street to the other hang-out, 2 pigs stopped us and started making up reasons to bust us. They finally came up with disorderly conduct. Some brothers from the first hang-out started walking down the street with Angries held up. These brothers walked right past those pigs and I'm telling you - it really made those pigs uptight.

When they got to the other hang-out, they showed everyone the Angries and told them what was happening. But the thing that really freaked those pigs out was, when they drove us away, everyone was shouting 'pigs' and giving the fist.

Down at the station, it was a fuckin drag. The pigs that busted us threatened to kill us if we ever came back there again. We've been threatened by pigs before, but these pigs were so scared of the power of our paper, that I believe that they were dead serious. Let me tell you something - pig - the people in Gage Park are going to get our paper and there's nothing you can do about it. If you kill one of us, one hundred will take our place. You can kill a revolutionary, but you can't kill the revolution! In the spirit of Fred Hampton - we'll be back!

I ain't no writer, but here's my gig. I went to Schurz, and man that was a bitch. Like I was in my Freshman year last year, and I was suspended 18 times; 5 times for not doing detentions, 6 times for telling my Algebra teacher to go Fuck herself because sho would bitch at me for not doing homework, 3 times because I told a teacher to suspend me and I would slip him a buck (and he did), and 5 times for fist fighting with the attendence officer and the school pigs. As a total I missed 135 days of school with suspensions and absences. Can you dig it, there's only 185 days of school in one term.

And the 50 days I did spend in that prison were a waste of time. I finally quit and it was the smartest thing I ever did.

Also, we need people in every neighborhood and every school and factory to help spread the revolutionary word by getting Angry around to other brothers and sisters - other potential revolutionaries. We need help getting them on newstands and in stores in your hood. Seize the Time!

HERE COME THE PIGS!

I was sitting by the window of the Belmont Grill restaurant when this pig ordered me to get off for no reason whatsoever. The pig's name is Zurales, and I told him that the owner and the grill-man were the only ones who could tell me to get off. Upon this, the pig told me that if I didn't obey his order, he would make me get off by force (kick my ass in). I told him I would not get off and dared him to hit me because the restaurant is a public place, and as long as I'm not molesting anyone, I can sit wherever I feel like!

HOUSING

Landlords, most of them pigs, like to take the law into their own hands. They feel they have the right to treat tenants like rats and when they get tired of them - they just get rid of them as fast as possible. This winter, a lot of people have been evicted or had their electricity and gas turned off because their rent was a few days late. Landlords have no legal way to lock anyone out of their apartment, unless he takes you to court, after a 5 day notice, a summons and a court order. (This takes about 30 to 60 days). Landlords think they have these rights, but the people are not bound to respect them - not even the pigs say landlords can lock you out or turn off your gas or electricity.

So - Angry says - kick in your door, if you're locked out. Break into the basement and turn on your gas and electricity! If you need help - Angry will be glad to help you because you have a right to decent housing!

FORD CITY

The pigs from Chicago Lawn Station on West 63rd St. are beginning to realize that RUA is a real threat to them. A few weeks ago, at Ford City shopping center, which is now patrolled by Chicago pigs, 3 sisters and a brother from Angry were harassed for selling papers there. Many people were buying them and rapping to us when pigs came up and busted us. They brought us all downstairs to an office where some pig businessman told us how they had a law that no one can distribute or sell any material in the shopping mall. They told us that if we sold or passed out any more papers or leaflets, we would be charged. With that, we went back upstairs to the mall and just sat on a bench. People who saw us sitting there with the papers came up to buy them. It was kind of a hassle because there we were, sitting there completely surrounded by 5 pigs, radios and all. Can you dig how uptight they were. Well, we decided to show them we weren't intimidated - no matter how many pigs they had. So we rapped to people and gave out papers. Finally we decided to walk around and this patrol of idiots followed us, checking out every move we made. When we stopped to talk to a friend of ours, one of these stupid pigs came up and told us to keep moving. We said, 'Oh yea, we're not moving and we're not doing anything wrong - so get lost.' This pig then really got flustered and said if we didn't move he was going to take us in for disorderly, profanity and loitering. We just stood there giving him a dirty look. This low natured beast finally had to back down 'cause he knew there were too many people checking this scene out and the bust was illegal anyway. So we stayed and you can be sure we're coming back!

RISING UP ANGRY

"If our people fight one tribe at a time, all will be killed. They can cut off our fingers one by one, but if we join together we will make a powerful fist."
Little Turtle, Master General of the Miami Indians, 1791

Rising Up Angry uses the fist as our symbol. The fist is an international symbol of struggle. Struggle of the people against the pigs that oppress us. Like Little Turtle said, it's about the people sticking together tight and strong against the enemy. All people sticking together. No restrictions as to race, nationality, age or sex. It's about freedom and equality. Freedom and equality for everybody. Blacks, whites, Asians, Latins, Indians, men, women, young and old. Power belongs to all the people. That's what we mean when we give the fist.

On the cover of Rising Up Angry we still use the symbol of the fist, but we've added a gun into that fist. This is because in order to get what we want, to get what we need. we're going to have to use guns. The pigs' guns and the threat of the pigs' guns are used to keep the people from living a good life. We can't be intimidated into spending our lives serving a few rich people. We must serve all the people and to do it, we must defend ourselves and our community from the Gestapo Pigs. So our symbol is now the fist of struggle and solidarity holding a gun -- the tool for our freedom.

PIG JAMES A. ALFANO (OF THE G.I.U)
GOOD AND DEAD

Last August 13th, pig James A. Alfano was killed while on duty. On duty meant hasseling the black community up at Kenwood, and in particular, members of the P. Stone Nation.

Immediately after Alfano was killed, the fascists rounded up the six key members of the P. Stone Nation and charged them with conspiracy to commit murder, and murder. The pigs then got some witnesses by threats, or favors, or money. Their leading witness, Ceasari Marsh, was threatened with returning to jail if he didn't testify. He got so tangled in his lies, however, that he turned the jury against himself. Now the pigs, after not being able to convict the 7 brothers from the stones, have indicted Marsh for murder. This should be a lesson to all brothers and sisters - that the pig is always the enemy and we should never turn on one another, no matter how the pigs may threaten us.

The jury in the Alfano case showed that the people will not be fooled by the pigs. They said there was not enough evidence to convict the 7 defendants and that the prosecution must have been counting on their personal predjudices to bring in a guilty verdict.

TEAR DOWN THE FASCIST COURTS!

I'd like to talk about the scene I came from, 'cause a lot of sisters are going thru the same things. A lot of sisters are told, for so long, that they'll never be anything, they'll never accomplish anything and that they are no good, that they almost believe it. They start going out with a couple of guys and their mom says they're bums; they start going with a crowd and their family says it's the wrong crowd and they'll end up in jail or pregnant or in juvenile court. They feel no matter what they do - it's wrong. They don't get any encouragement and they're told to "be good" --whatever that means.

I know, I was afraid to talk to anyone, I wouldn't speak my own mind. I sat in a corner and anything anybody did to me -- I would take it. They could shit all over me but that was alright 'cause I understood that they really didn't want to be mean, they were messed over too. I'd make excuses for everybody and if I heard that someone was mad at me for something I did, I'd run to apologize, "Oh, I'm sorry. I didn't mean to hurt you." It was pretty much the same thing for all the girls in our crowd. The guys would use us."Do you have any money ? " saw him a couple of times after that. He decided to go to California and when he came back, about a month later, everything in my life started to fall apart. I moved into my own apartment and he told me we should break it off and I just cracked up.

I wanted to commit myself. I just lost all the confidence I had because he wasn't around.

A couple of months after that I met some sisters from Angry and they talked about the women getting themselves together and making themselves stronger. Like not being so dependent on guys for confidence and not being afraid to speak your own mind. Something just snapped all of a sudden and I said what in the hell am I doing? And I looked around and everything looked so different after that.

I started dealing with all kinds of problems and got my life together - taking on stuff that I'd never dreamed of taking on before. I got involved in Angry and for me - a simple thing like passing out papers was heavy. But we (the sisters in Angry) gave each other confidence and I started rapping to people and reading and exchanging ideas and it was almost like a completely different person doing it all.

You'd give it to them. You almost felt yo u owed it to them, or if you didn't give them what they wanted, they wouldn't like you, and you didn't want that. You were afraid to turn anyone down. The only thing you had going for you was the kids in the neighborhood and you'd do everything you could so you wouldn't lose them. And especially the guys - you didn't want to be put down by the guys because then the girls would make fun of you and say, "Oh, he doesn't like you," or, "He thinks you're stupid," But at the same time, you couldn't be too friendly to all the guys because the girls would resent you if you you were nice to a guy they liked. They'd say you were taking away their boyfriend or trying to take over. You really got all involved in this stuff.

We finally got it a little together in the neighborhood and started to set up a coffee house for the kids--kind or a community center where we could get together off the street. I finally started going with a guy who was working with me on the coffee house. We hit it off good and I started to trust him and talk to him a lot. I started to break out of my shyness and even took some independent steps because of the confidence I had from going with my boyfriend. We went together for a long time and then he started gettin into dope heavy and he kind of backed off from me - he'd make excuses so he could go with the guys and get high - shoot up and everything. I started getting paranoid - in fact that's what he used to call me - Paranoid! So I started secluding myself again and I just dropped all my friends - I just went to work and came home - I had no social life at all.I

SISTERS

It's like a whole new world has opend up to me. When you realize that you're getting involved with everything and not afraid to say something anymore and you're not afraid to take on responsibility and get it done... it really blows your mind.

Especially if you see another sister challenging a guy and he backs off - you know something is turning around! And if guys shut up when sisters tell them that they're full of shit (when they are) you get a feeling that they're listening to you and you feel so much stronger - and it makes you think, "My god - look what I could have done if I'd started sooner."

This helps the guys too - because they have to start to deal with themselves and their heads change fast after they have to deal seriously with women a few times - and they can't continue to put women down for no reason because women start to take some initiative.

When the guy I was going with came back from California, we both were working with Angry. We started going together again, but now it's different and better. We both bring strength to each other instead of the old drain of one trying to be strong and the other being totally dependent. We have a group of people that we can trust to help us with our personal problems and most important, we are working together to make the revolution and make the changes, in this messed up society, that will make life better for all people. My mind and strength have been liberated. Sisters --liberate yourselves!

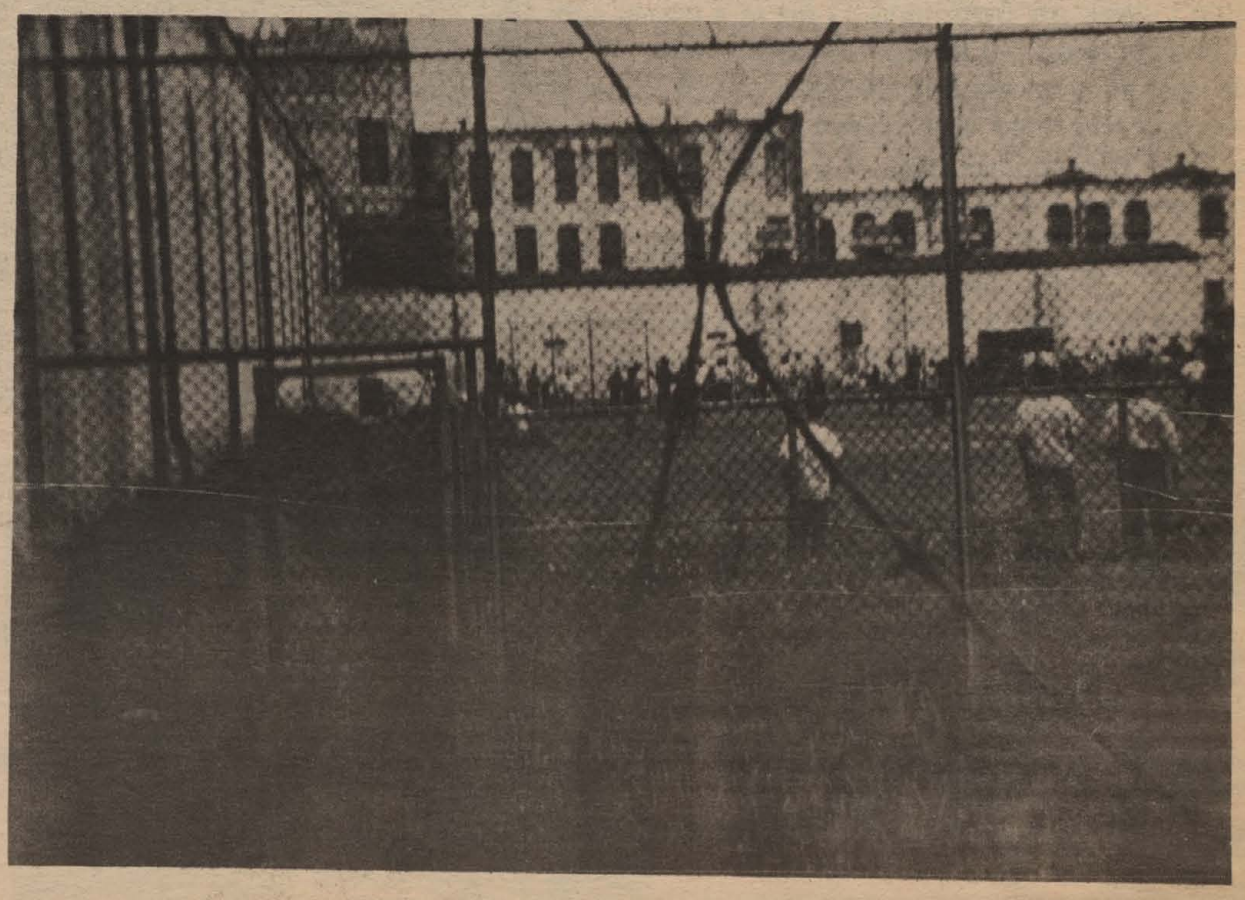
MISSISSIPPI PALISADES

A BROTHER'S PERSONAL STORY OF

WHAT IT'S LIKE AT THIS PRISON CAMP ..



Mississippi Palisades is one of the several camps in the Illinois Youth Commission (now the Department of Correction, Juvenile Division). Some people might think it's a boss place to do time, but really it's messed up. Sure you have more freedom than St. Charles, Joliet, or Sheridan, but this camp's primary purpose is to break down your mind. For instance, they have a few privileges for you if you're a so-called 'good boy'. You go to the show if you don't get any attitudes with any of the pig guards. Then when it's time to go to the show, the bus breaks down. One day we discovered that one of the pig guards, or so-called supervisors, named Stan, was the one who was tearing up the bus. This chump would actually pull out the wires to the lights because he couldn't see us have even a little enjoyment or sometimes his fat ass wouldn't have enough strength to drive the bus.

In this particular camp, the littlest smart remark could cause you to stay another month or lose your ten days home, which you receive with the courtesy of the camp director every 3 or 4 months. The thing that bothered me the most about this camp is, if they don't like you for some reason, you're in trouble. You may as well hang it up because you're in for a long stay no matter how hard you try. Two or three brothers in this chumpy camp had been to Sheridan before, so they were branded as the worst things in the whole camp. If anything happened they were the first to feel the blow. If the other brothers didn't tell them who did it, the pig director would definitely blame it on them. There was one brother who always got messed with because he and 3 or 4 of his associates didn't like to hang around with everyone else in camp. At least this was one of the several reasons why he was told he couldn't go home on Xmas furlough. This brother had been to every institution within the Illinois border. And the only thing they did for him was make him hate pigs and everything they stand for. This brother, when he was in Palisades, had a hell of a time. He would get the blame for what his friends did because he had been to Sheridan and was supposed to be a pressure boy (put pressure on another person either mentally or physically to scare him). Now why the hell would a brother pressure his best partners? This is bullshit! The reason they kept this brother from going home and to most movies is because they were afraid they would never see him again.

Another thing this piggy camp could not dig about anybody was that white brothers had the ability to get along with black brothers. Which is bad in jail. The racist chumps didn't like that at all. If the whites and blacks in a camp got together they could really mess things up. They're 10 miles from the nearest town. By the time the pigs got there to put it down, the brothers could be running things. So, the pigs do anything to keep this from happening. The way they relate to stopping this is by calling a white or black brother of good status and who is a born leader into the confines of their office and if he's white they tell him what some black brother said and if he's black they tell him what some white brother said but really neither one said anything. So when the brother who they called into the office presents the false accusation to the other brother, of course the one who doesn't know what's going on says he didn't say these things. There's an argument, then a fight, then there's tension for a few days between blacks and whites then sometimes there's a race riot. This is what the pig wanted. Now they don't have to fear the thought of togetherness. What might have taken 2 or 3 months to build, they destroyed in 3 or 4 days. The pig is a greedy capitalist but he's also clever. In the youth commission they don't sentence you for a specific time, in other words they can keep you as long as they want. In this camp they act like you ain't got nothing else in your life but jail. Only a minority (the ass-kissers) get out in less than nine months.

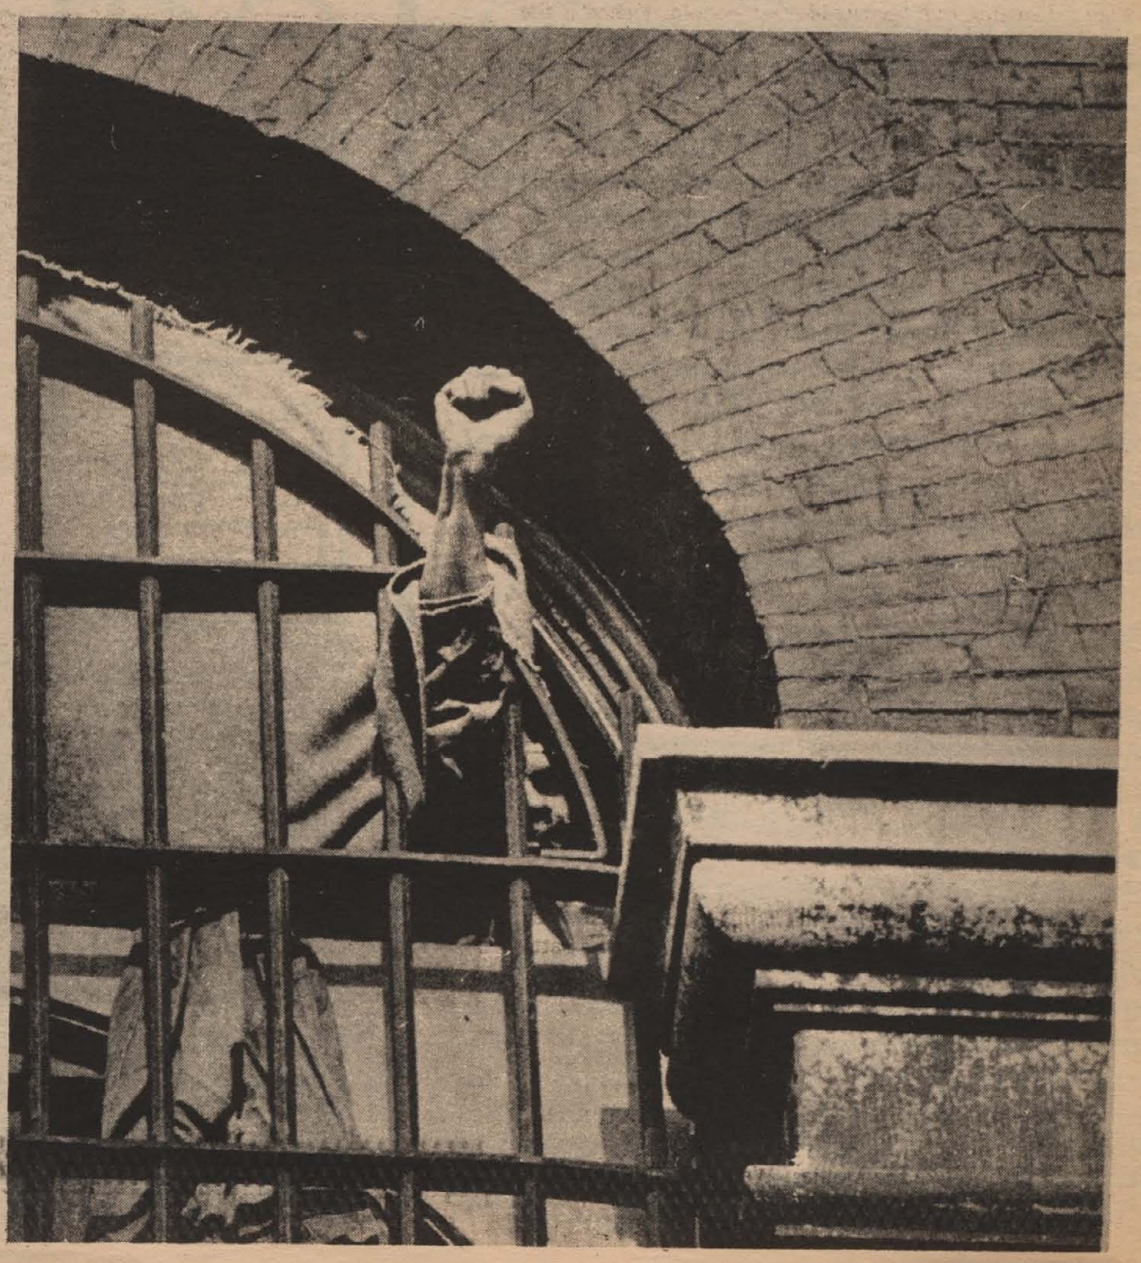
Another thing about the youth commission is they have a No Smoking rule. But in this camp they really enforce it. At one time the piggy director made it a month set if you were caught with a square. Could you imagine this? You just ate, right – most people I know get a taste for a cigarette -- so you light one up, right -- It's bad enough you can barely enjoy it because you have to keep watching for a pig. You get a drag between head turns. But then to get caught and have to do another month because you had the urge to smoke and a pig said you couldn't. This is really terrible. How can they do this? They're pigs, that's how. They can do anything. Another thing, these pigs in the camp don't give a damn about your health. One time a brother's filling came out of his tooth, it didn't even get fixed in this funky camp. I saw him in Joliet about six months later. He was going to get it pulled because the cavity had gotten so big it wasn't able to be filled. Now why couldn't they have filled it in the first place? No reason except they're lazy-ass pigs and it would be too much paper work.

Another part of the camp, which is really shitty, is the work they make you do. Every day you get up at 6:30 to wash up and eat breakfast and get your detail (job) for the day. At 8:30, you start work. You don't stop till 4:00. You work like hell too! If you don't, you get a bad work report which could stop you from going home sooner. If you refuse to work, you are automatically given an ultimatum to either work or go back to Joliet and start all over in another place. When I was in this piggy camp we even went to work when it was 17 below zero and I'm not exaggerating. You'd think we would at least go to work in something warm like a car or heated truck. No way. You go to work on the back of a dump truck going 45 to 50 miles an hour. Can you imagine how cold that is if it's 17 below with 50 miles an hour wind hitting you in the face? Believe me it's only for ten miles but it feels like a thousand. And do you know what your job is? Either you chop wood, dig holes, or empty garbage. Do you know how much you get paid, if you wanna call it that? 50 cents a day and a ten cents raise every month. Nice salary, ain't it? But if you were on the outside, for only one of these jobs you would get at least $3.00 an hour. So the longer the state keeps you, the less $3.00 an hour they have to dish out. What pigs!!!

Dig it brothers and sisters -- there ain't no such place as 'a nice place to do time'. Jail is jail and I never met anyone who got rehabilitated -- everyone I met got revolutionized.

JAIL THE JAILERS!

FREE ALL POLITICAL PRISONERS!



'There's those on top pushing down. And there's those on the bottom, pushing up. It's just a question of who's got more push.'
Sean Connery in 'The Molly Maguiers'

THE MOLLY MAGUIRES

Revolution in America is not a new thing. From the beginning of the United States there were working people who realized that the system that the country was based on was designed to give them a raw deal. This was especially true in the 1870's when rich capitalists moved into the coal fields in Pennsylvania. With the rich owners trying to make as much money as they could - they paid the miners as little as they could get away with and didn't invest anything toward working conditions or the miners safety. A lot of miners got hip to this real quick. That's what the movie - 'The Molly Maguires' - is all about.

Most of the people who got jobs in the mines were from Ireland. They believed the lies about 'having a better life' in America and came here. This was true of the two leading characters in the movie, Jack Kehoe (Sean Connery), who is a revolutionary miner, and James McParlan (Richard Harris), who is an undercover pig. Both of them knew there wasn't a better life for most people here, the difference between them was, Kehoe fought for the working people and McParlan sold out his people to become an undercover pig. He said, 'I'm tired of being at the bottom of the barrel...I know which side my bread is buttered on...I'd even kill to get out (of the mines).' What makes him the worst pig of all is that he'd kill his own people.

Kehoe will kill, too. But he knows that the fight is against the mine owners and the pigs who do their dirty work - for sure, not against his own people. Kehoe is the leader of a secret group of miners called the Molly Maguires, who got together to fight back against the brutal conditions of the mines that the Irish immigrants had to work in to survive. They blew up mines, derailed coal trains, attacked mine superintendants and cops. They stayed secret because every time someone fucked up the mines, the people knew it was the Mollies and they covered for them, lied for them and hid them out. The people dug the Mollies and the Mollies dug the people.

But McParlan didn't understand this, even tho he was a poor Irish immigrant like the rest of them. All he understood was the money that the mine owners paid him. He chose to serve the rich to save his ass, for as long as they could use him - and he served them Kehoe and the Mollies and his own people, when he turned in evidence against them. McParlan still thinks he's cool when he sees the woman he was going with (the daughter of a miner) when he was running with the Mollies. He figured with all the money he got for turning them in, she'd run off with him. But, being true to the people, this sister says, 'I used to think there was nothing I wouldn't do to get out of the mines, but now I know different.'

Kehoe always knew different. McParlan goes to see him in jail, in the last scene of the movie. McParlan says what he did was cool because the Mollies wouldn't have won anyway. He asks Kehoe why he keeps on fighting and Kehoe says, 'You know why....you worked down there with us.' Then Kehoe smashes the dude - and if the jail bull hadn't clubbed him from behind, he'd have killed McParlan.

Kehoe and some of the Mollies are hanged - but, like one of them says early in the movie, 'we lost a battle but we'll win the war.'

'The Molly Maguires' is a movie about all of us. We're their brothers and sisters. Dig what the Mollies said when the miners at a different mine needed their help:

'It's the same quarrel. The heel on their neck is the same heel on ours.'

Fight on like the Mollies. We're winning the war!

SELF DEFENSE

Those of us who have been brought up watching T.V. and western movies have been taught every possible bad habit when it comes to guns. The first thing we have to do is forget everything that Roy Rogers ever does with his guns.

First of all, the reason we use handguns is that they are easy to conceal and lightweight. Rifles are more accurate, more powerful and more reliable for most things. They're just bulky to carry around.

For self-defense purposes, handguns are rarely used at a distance of more than 20 ft. A 9mm., .45ACP, .38 spl. and .357 magnum are accurate between 150 and 200 feet. But this is only recommended for shooting at targets that don't shoot back. Of course, if you're being shot at and all you've got is a handgun, make the best of what you've got.

There are more .25 automatic pistols sold in America than any other new auto pistol. And the .25 auto pistol runs second to the .38 revolver in the total pistol sales. You can get a brand new .25 automatic that is only four inches long with an 8-shot cycle for less than $40. But it's a waste of money. It looks cool but when you stop fantasizing about how cool you are with a gun hidden up your asshole you find that in real life a .25 auto pistol has very little stopping power. You can empty your gun into the belly of a pig and not kill him. Remember, when you pick up the gun, you're playing for keeps. If you're going to shoot at someone -- shoot to kill. Otherwise, someday he'll come back and kill you. It's only on television where you shoot the gun out of someone's hand. Anyone who does that will probably get it in the back someday. So if you want a gun that is real small and doesn't have much of a bulge — get yourself a .38 snubnose revolver.

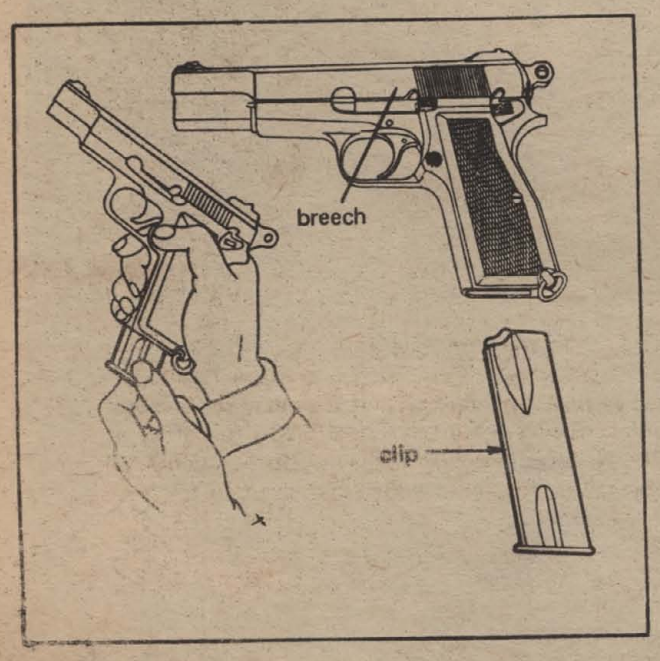
The .45 automatic is one of the best handguns if you can handle it. It takes a lot of practice and it is too powerful for some people to ever be able to use efficiently. They're a lot of noise and a lot of kick. But if a pig is running at you and you hit him in the shoulder with a .45 -- he'll fall and he'll crawl. A 9mm is a little easier to handle and is sufficiently powerful.

What's better for self-defense purposes, a revolver or an automatic pistol? The police departments use revolvers while the military uses the .45 automatic. They both have advantages and disadvantages. If you're only going to get one or two shots, a revolver is more dependable because it is less likely to jam and if the cartridge misfires, all you have to do is pull the trigger again to fire. If an automatic pistol jams the bullet must be pulled out by hand. If the bullet doesn't fire then, the gun must be cocked by hand and fired again. This takes about 5 seconds and could mean your life. But if you have a good gun that is well cleaned, oiled, and cared for, and use good ammunition, then you will seldom if ever jam or misfire.

Most revolvers hold 6 shots and to reload you have to eject the used shells and replace each cartridge individually. This takes a long time. An automatic has a magazine that can hold up to 40 rounds. There is a 40 shot clip for 45's and 23 shot clips for the 9mm. If you have an extra clip that is already loaded then you can reload 40 shots in a matter of seconds. That's a lot of fire-power.

Shooting the automatic is basically the same as shooting the revolver. The hammer is cocked automatically. Sighting and trigger-squeeze, the two most important things to learn, are the same as described in the last issue of RUA.

Clean your gun like your life depended on it. Because it does. Keeping an automatic pistol clean will prevent jamming even in cold weather. Only a fool would risk his life with a gun that hasn't been cared for.



TO CLEAN AN AUTOMATIC PISTOL

1 - Remove clip and open breech - be certain clip is empty before replacing in gun.

2 - Saturate bronze brush with Nitro powder solvent and push thru barrel 10 times. This will remove streaks of lead left in bore after shooting.

3 - Saturate patch with Nitro powder solvent - working it back and forth thru the bore 10 times.

4 - Repeat operation no.3 using a clean patch. Examine bore by looking thru it using a piece of white paper held one inch from breech to reflect the light. If any leading or fouled spots are present, repeat operation 2 and 3.

5 - When bore is clean, saturate a loose-fitting clean patch with gun oil and carefully swab the bore, making sure all surfaces are lightly covered with oil.

6 - Now apply oil to all working parts, wiping away the surplus. Wipe outside of gun with oily patch, being careful not to touch metal with bare hands.

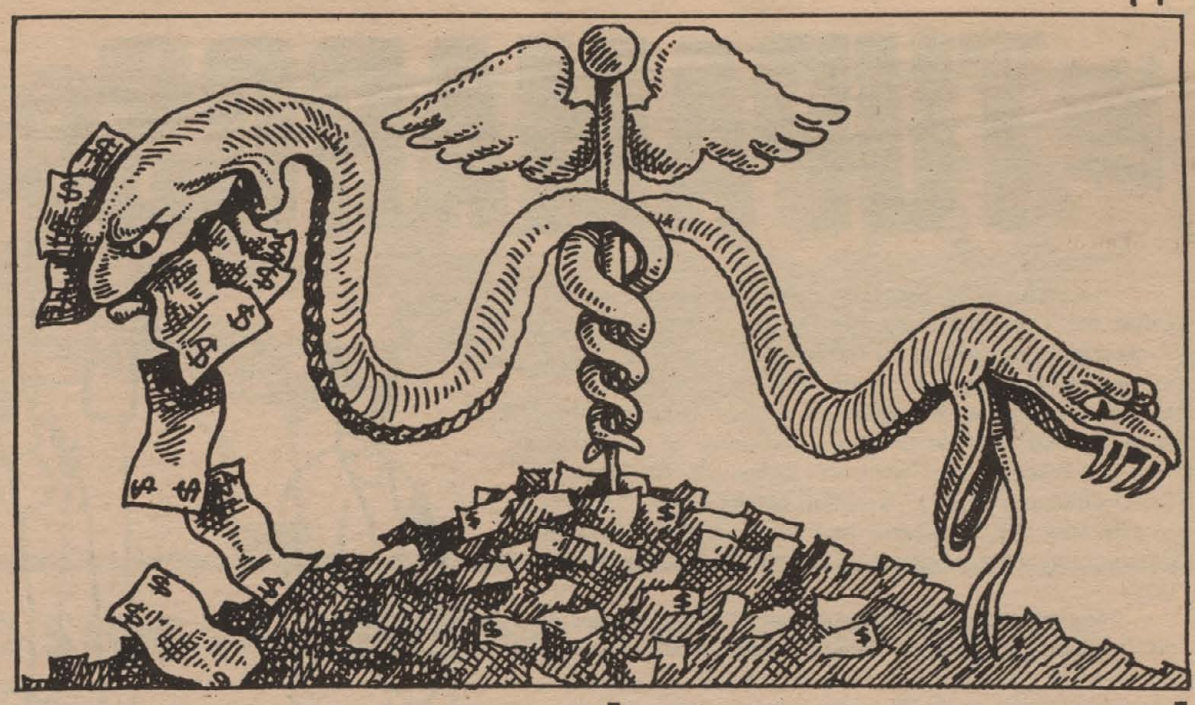
7 - Before any gun is fired after cleaning or storage, enough patches should be run thru the bore and chamber to remove all grease or oil present. Be sure bore is clean before firing. Never attempt to shoot obstructions from the bore of any gun, always remove obstruction with cleaning rod and patch.

Everybody knows people in this country don't get decent medical care. The doctors all charge outrageous prices for sloppy treatment and if you don't have the money, you're at the mercy of the city set-up, the Board of Health. The super pig chump, that runs the Board of Health, Murray Brown, hates the people and is always making speeches like this:

'Not knowing and not caring about good health is more responsible for health problems of the poor than low income. Some of these mothers don't have enough sense to put shoes on a kid to go out doors in winter.'

The people refuse to be 'legally' murdered and maimed anymore. Free People's health clinics are opening up all over the country with community people and doctors that make sure that the sick are cured and that the healthy stay healthy.

This is the story of a man who's experience with the 'medical profession' left him crippled. What blows our minds is that his story is not unusual and in fact he's lucky he's still alive. This brother is now working with the Fritzi Englestein Free People's Health Clinic to stop this butchery from happening to others.



pig's medicine

It started back in '60. I was working for a construction company, Davis Company, and I fell 2 and a half stories. People fall all over the city, one guy fell 22 stories last year. With me, the whole wall I was repairing came down on me. They took me to one hospital and found I had a fractured hip, but they didn't do nothing. After about 6 hours, they transfered me to Lexing Brothers hospital. I fell on August 17, 1960 and I didn't go home til the end of November. They didn't tell me anything, the doctors never do anyhow.

I had to go on welfare, I had five kids. My hip wasn't right and I went to a doctor on Clark Street - he did x-rays and welfare didn't pay for it. Then I saw a bone specialist and he operated and put a plastic cup in my hip. But, I never got physical therapy and one night my leg started hurting bad. I called the doctor and he said if you want a private doctor you have to pay - come up with $300 for the operation and $25 for each office visit or find yourself another doctor. So - I went to get disabled social security. The doctor there said my hip was rejecting the plastic because it should have been taken out - but I never could get no doctor to take it out.

In around '63-'64, I had some treatments - but my leg had already shrunk 1½ inches. Now it's shrunk 2½. Welfare was supposed to pay for all this, but they didn't. The hospital was threatening to take me to court. Hospitals are all alike - if you ain't got no money - they ain't going to do anything.

I finally got $28,742 from the lawsuit with the property owner where I fell. I don't know how they did it, but Welfare was there and took $19,872.20 of it. They said I owed it to them, but they weren't helping. The lawyers and the court got in line and I didn't have anything left. They handed me $300 and said - hit the road. At the time, I didn't think they could do that - now I know they can do anything they want. Welfare grabbed the money and then kicked me off Welfare the following week. In the meantime, I ain't got no money and I was running from doctor to doctor. Same old story - if you ain't got no money - we don't even want to look at you. I just decided I'd have to live with it.

Right now I got to pay $32 for special shoes - but they ain't the good ones. If I got the right kind, they'd cost $130.

Yea, I think the clinic is a real good thing. We really need something like that. If you need medicine and yr [illegible]t no money, they'll get it for you. If you need [illegible]e hospitalized and there's no money, they'll get y[illegible]u in somewhere. It's really a good thing.

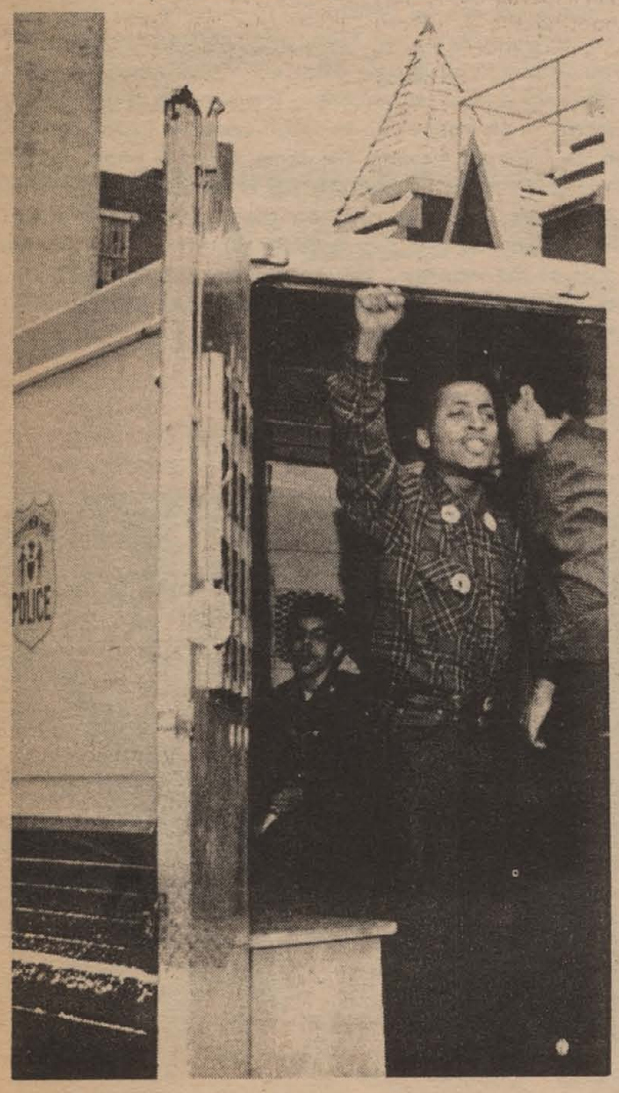
BUST INFO:



A PIG IS A PIG If you are stopped by the pigs you don't have to answer any questions except your name and address. (It's not a bad idea to have a cover address of a straight person who will verify that you live there.)

But remember--refusing to answer a pig's questions will probably make him mad enough to arrest you on a city disorderly charge or some other nonsense.

IDENTIFY THE ENEMY If the person who stops you is in plain clothes ask him to show his identification. Remember his name and badge number so you can give it to your lawyer.

STOP AND FRISK A pig can stop and frisk you if he thinks you have a weapon or if you are doing something "suspicious." If you are carrying a gun he's going to tell the judge that he saw the bulge. If you are holding dope don't throw it away if the pig can see you. Eating it is the best idea.

HOUSE SEARCH Supposedly pigs can not search your house unless they have a warrant or unless they are in "hot pursuit" of a criminal. If the pigs come to your house, ask if they have a warrant. If they don't you don't have to let them in. If they say they have a warrant tell them to slip it under the door or somehow to get it to you without your opening the door. If you have dope don't let them see where you get rid of it.

CAR SEARCH If a pig stops you while you are driving get out of the car right away with your license and registration. This way he cannot say that when he stepped up to the car the dope or weapons was in 'plain view'. If they don't have a warrant, you should state (in front of a witness, if possible) that you do not want them to search the car. This may get the case thrown out if you go to court.

PHONE CALLS After you are arrested and booked you have the right to make phone calls. If you don't tell them your name and address and let them fingerprint you the booking process is not complete and you will not be able to make your phone calls. You should be entitled to make enough calls to get a lawyer and to get bail money. If you can't get in touch with a lawyer directly, call someone who can call a lawyer for you.

DO NOT MAKE ANY STATEMENTS OR SIGN ANY STATEMENTS ABOUT THE CRIME. IF THE PIGS START QUESTIONING YOU TELL THEM YOU WANT YOUR LAWYER.

BAIL If you are arrested on a city offense the bail is normally set at the pig station at $25. If you are arrested on a state misdemeanor charge which is punishable by only a fine the bail is $50. On misdemeanors where you can get prison time the bail is $1000 which means that you have to put up $100.

On some misdemeanors and all felonies the pigs will not set bail. A judge will set the bail and in order to be released you have to post 10% of the amount.

CHARGES The first thing that the arresting officer must do is charge you. There are 3 kinds of charges.
1) Felony - generally a violation of a state law. Punishable by a fine and/or prison for at least 1 year.
2) Misdemeanor - violation of a state law. Punishable by a fine only or prison up to 1 year.
3) Municipal Ordinance - violation of a city law. Punishable by fines only - no jail sentence.

COURT If you are in custody when you are brought before a judge ask him to set a recognizance bond, which means that you won't have to put up any money. This will depend on the crime you're charged with, whether you've ever been arrested before and how long you've lived in Chicago.

You have the right to a continuance on your first time up in order to get a lawyer. Anytime the judge is going to force you to trial and you don't want to go, ask for a jury trial. They will have to transfer your case to another court.

LEGAL AID

Don't trust the Public Defender. He doesn't have time to prepare your case. Always have your own lawyer. If you don't have money for a lawyer contact Rising Up Angry. Come up to the office at 2744 N. Lincoln on Wednesday nights between 7 and 9 or call us any time and we will give you free legal advice, help you with your case, or refer you to a people's lawyer for little or no cost. THE TUPAMAROS Urban Guerrilla Warfare in Uruguay

Recently we've heard a lot about an organization called the Tupamaros. In January, they kidnapped an Ambassador, demanding the release of political prisoners as ransom. On august 10th, they executed CIA pig Dan Mitrione, when the Uruguayan government wouldn't release the 150 political prisoners demanded as ransom. And just recently, the Tupamaros pulled off the largest bank robbery in history - 6 million dollars worth. To be so effective, the Tupamaros have had to build a highly developed revolutionary organization over the last few years.

To understand the Tupamaros or MLN (movement de liberation nationale) you've got to know a little about the country they're in - Uruguay, South America. Uruguay is small - only 2½ million people, nearly half of whom live in the capital city, Montevideo. The great majority of the wealth is controlled by between 1 to 2% of the population who are either puppets of or in direct cahoots with US business. That means that a great percentage of the Uruguayan people are poor, hungry and powerless and that a large majority of them live in urban areas (cities).

The Tupamaros believe that if the people of Uruguay are going to get a better life, they have to kick the US business out, the poor people have to take control of the economics and politics of the country and establish a socialist society. They don't believe that the US will leave peacefully (they look at Vietnam!) nor do they believe that the Uruguayan ruling class will redistribute their wealth peacefully. So the Tupamaros feel that the only way the poor people will ever get a better life, is when they pick up the gun and use revolutionary violence to kick the US out and take over control of their own country. And because the majority of the people live in the cities, they feel the place to fight the guerrilla war is in the urban areas (rather than the countryside, like in Cuba and Vietnam).

This doesn't mean that the Tupamaros have forgotten about the poor peasants in the countryside. On the contrary, Raul Sendic, one of the founders of the Tupamaros, helped organize a union among the cane cutters. He is a hero to the rural peasants - so the Tupamaros have lots of support from their sisters and brothers in the fields of Uruguay.

In early 1963, Raul Sendic and some other well-known revolutionaries disappeared. They went underground to build a revolutionary army. Later on, in '63, a bunch of automatic rifles were ripped off from this fancy gun club. A year and a half later, paintings and wall posters announced the birth of the MLN or the Tupamaros.

At first they were called the hunger commandoes, because they would rip off food from large firms and distribute it to the people for free. You see, the strategy the Tupamaros have chosen is one of educating the people, through their actions, to the fact that it is possible to fight the fascists and imperialists and win. At the same time that they are educating people, they are changing the conditions in the country. They are creating the conditions for a mass revolutionary movement. The strategy is very flexible and changes as conditions and situations change.

The main thing about the actions, is that they are directly related to the needs of the people, for they are always directed at the real enemy (like Rockefeller oil-wells or freeing all the women in a prison), they are always carried out in a revolutionary fashion so the people know the Tupamaros are fighting for them. They are always educational and carried out effectively. For instance, kidnappings are usually tied in with a strike, the money from bank ripoffs goes to the poorest communities and their communiques and news releases are always done in a way that everyone can relate to and understand.

The Tupamaros are known for their good manners and revolutionary respect and love for the people. In one bank robbery, an old lady fainted, so the brothers pulling the job, stopped to revive her before they left. When questioned about this robbery, the chief of police said he had no concrete evidence as to who did it, but he assumed it was the Tupamaros because of 'the perfect organization, the good manners of the assailants and the human touch' of the robbers. In another instance, the pigs found an MLN hideout; there was an exchange of gunfire and a civilian security guard was wounded. The Tupamaros gave this guard first aid. The next day they sent a letter to a newspaper, telling civilian pigs they had a choice - if they chose to repress the Tupamaros, they would be ripped off, if they stood aside, though, they would be unharmed. So many pigs are slow to answer calls and one of the largest bank robberies took place right next to police headquarters.

Because of their dedication to the people and the example they provide, Uruguayan people in all walks of life, support or join the Tupamaros. Like Fernando Gurin. He was a Uruguayan sailor and on his duties he saw some workers being tortured for participating in a strike. He joined the Tupamaros.

On May 29, 1970, Fernando Gurin was an orderly of the guard at the Uruguayan Navy Training Center. At 1:45 a.m. he gave a signal, a car pulled up with 3 Tupamaros in it who said they were from the police. Gurin let them in. Within 15 minutes these 3 men and 19 others (men and women) had taken over the security of the garrison (which is located only 12 blocks from the presidential palace). 15 more minutes and all of the sailors and officers are captured. By 3:30 a truck loaded with 700 guns and most of the commandoes, pulled out of the base. The revolutionaries who remained behind, raised the Tupamaro flag, took pictures of the jailed officers and sailors, of the flag and of the revolutionary slogans written on the walls. At 4:15 a.m., all of the revolutionaries had split, leaving behind a letter from Gurin explaining why he had joined the revolution.

To be able to pull off actions like that, the MLN needs the support of the people and they also need a highly organized, tightly disciplined structure. They work in small self-defense units or cells, with 4 or 5 people in each group. These cells are co-ordinated by leaders who meet only once a year. Inside each cell, men and women participate equally and all actions are planned and carried out collectively. Whenever there is a new recruit, she/he must have a sponsor who submits a long report, as a 1st step for admission. Each cell is under tight discipline -- there is no drinking allowed and those who smoke are asked to cut down. Each member must know how to operate all kinds of weapons and explosives, how to start a car without a key and how to sabotage a police car. It seems at least to an extent that members of the group do not live 'underground' lives only, but rather operate normally within the society, while concealing the fact that they are Tupamaros. Of the members who have been caught, besides peasants and workers, some have been actors, writers, students, doctors, and some government workers (including an official of the Ministry of Foreign Relations.)

The Tupamaro bases which have been discovered have been found to contain medicines and medical instruments, weapons, labs for making bombs, ammunition, license plates, false ID's (as well as the equipment needed to make the papers - photography shops, paper, machines, etc., all stolen from police headquarters), and uniforms of every kind.)

The integration of revolutionary political perspectitive, with a flexible strategy based on the needs of the people, and a highly organized military operation, has allowed the Tupamaros to continue to grow. Their armed actions are educational and are giving the people of Uruguay, and the rest of South America, faith that the imperialists can be defeated. In carrying out these educational actions, the Tupemaros are also changing the conditions in Uruguay - making the conditions for a revolutionary mass movement. The success of the Tupamaros is an inspiration to revolutionaries in North America. We are fighting the same pig - US imperialism - and every blow against the pig is a victory for us. We should learn what we can from the Tupamaros and apply that lesson to our own specific conditions here in the guts of the monster. We are standing side by side with the Tupamaros, learning from them and battling with them - until the people of the world are free.

LONG LIVE THE TUPAMAROS!
